Rocky Mountain Right Endorses Charles Crain in the CD-1 Primary

June 9, 2008 - 10:17pm — Rocky Mountain Right

While Rocky Mountain Right will remain neutral in most primaries, some present such a clear-cut choice and unusual scenario that an endorsement must be given. One of these scenarios is the Congressional District One primary encompassing Denver's solid Democratic district. While it is a nearly foregone conclusion that the Democrat will be victorious in CD-1, the outcome of this Republican primary is vital to the Bob Schaffer and John McCain candidacies.

At the CD-1 assembly, ballot access was granted to George Lilly and Charles Crain to compete in the primary. George Lilly converted to the Republican Party last year from the Constitution Party for the express reason of running for Congress. At his public appearances at Denver County GOP events he has launched tirades against the Schaffer and McCain campaigns and has made it clear that he will not support the Republican ticket in November. Supporters of Lilly's were responsible for many of the pointless disruptions of the Colorado Republican Convention several weeks ago. His supporters made clear they would not support John McCain or Bob Schaffer and pulled several stunts that included parading around in Uncle Sam outfits while screaming at Dick Wadhams at the podium.

George Lilly is no Republican. While it is doubtful we can win this seat, George Lilly's presence on the ticket could be disruptive enough to harm other Republican candidates running statewide.

Vote Charles Crain in the Republican CD-1 Primary. Tell George Lilly to go back to the Constitution Party.
