COMPLAINT TRANSMITTAL COVERSHEET

Attached is a Complaint that has been filed against you with the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO) Arbitration and Mediation Center (the Center) pursuant to the Uniform Domain Name Dispute Resolution Policy (the Policy) approved by the Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers (ICANN) on October 24, 1999, the Rules for Uniform Domain Name Dispute Resolution Policy (the Rules), and the WIPO Supplemental Rules for Uniform Domain Name Dispute Resolution Policy (the Supplemental Rules).

The Policy is incorporated by reference into your Registration Agreement with the Registrar(s) of your domain name(s), in accordance with which you are required to submit to a mandatory administrative proceeding in the event that a third party (a Complainant) submits a complaint to a dispute resolution service provider, such as the Center, concerning a domain name that you have registered. You will find the name and contact details of the Complainant, as well as the domain name(s) that is/are the subject of the Complaint in the document that accompanies this Coversheet.

You have no duty to act at this time. Once the Center has checked the Complaint to determine that it satisfies the formal requirements of the Policy, the Rules and the Supplemental Rules, it will forward an official copy of the Complaint to you. You will then have 20 calendar days within which to submit a Response to the Complaint in accordance with the Rules and Supplemental Rules to the Center and the Complainant. You may represent yourself or seek the assistance of legal counsel to represent you in the administrative proceeding.

- The Policy can be found at http://www.wipo.int/amc/en/domains/rules/

- The Rules can be found at http://www.wipo.int/amc/en/domains/rules/

- The Supplemental Rules, as well as other information concerning the resolution of domain name disputes can be found at http://www.wipo.int/amc/en/domains/rules/

- A model Response can be found at http://www.wipo.int/amc/en/domains/respondent/index.html

Alternatively, you may contact the Center to obtain any of the above documents. The Center can be contacted in Geneva, Switzerland by telephone at +41 22 338 8247, by fax at +41 22 740 3700 or by e-mail at domain.disputes@wipo.int.

You are kindly requested to contact the Center to provide the contact details to which you would like (a) the official version of the Complaint and (b) other communications in the administrative proceeding to be sent.

A copy of this Complaint has also been sent to the Registrar(s) with which the domain name(s) that is/are the subject of the Complaint is/are registered.

By submitting this Complaint to the Center the Complainants hereby agree to abide and be bound by the provisions of the Policy, Rules and Supplemental Rules.

B. The Respondent

6. According to DomainTools (http://whois.domaintools.com), the Respondent in this administrative proceeding is listed as “PanamaCityPC Isaac Eiland-Hall” A copy of the printout of the WHOIS database search for the disputed domain name is attached as Exhibit A.

7. The information disclosed in the WHOIS database search regarding how to contact the Respondent is as follows:

   Name: Isaac Eiland-Hall PanamaCityPC
   Address: 914 Brandeis Avenue, Panama City, Florida 32405
   Telephone: (850) 250-1398
   Fax: (877) 219-6916
   E-mail: me@namewithheld.us

8. Previously, the Respondent was using the WhoisGuard Privacy Protection Service to anonymously register the Domain Name and to hide his identity. By e-mail dated September 14, 2009, WIPO Case Manager Ty Gray advised Complainants that the registrar eNom named Isaac Eiland-Hall as the actual registrant of the Domain Name.

III. The Domain Name and Registrar

9. This dispute concerns the domain name identified below:

   http://www.GlennBeckRapedAndMurderedAYoungGirlIn1990.com

10. The registrar with whom the Domain Name is registered (the “Registrar”) is:

    Name: eNom, Inc.
    Address: 15801 NE 24th St., Bellevue, WA 98008 USA
    Telephone: (425) 974-4689
    Fax: (425) 974-4791
    E-mail: legal@enom.com
IV. Jurisdictional Basis for the Administrative Proceeding

11. This dispute is properly within the scope of the Policy and the Administrative Panel has jurisdiction to decide the dispute. The Registration Agreement for Enom.com, the registrar to which the domain name subject to this Amended Complaint is registered, incorporates the Policy. A true and correct copy of the Enom.com dispute policy is attached as Exhibit B.

12. In addition, in accordance with the Policy, Paragraph 4, the Respondent is required to submit to a mandatory administrative proceeding because:

a. The Domain Name completely incorporates a trademark or service mark in which Complainants have rights; and

b. Respondent has no rights or legitimate interests in respect of the Domain Name; and

c. The Domain Name was registered and was and is being used in bad faith.

V. Factual Grounds

A. Complainants

13. Glenn Beck is one of America’s leading radio and television personalities. Mr. Beck’s syndicated radio show, The Glenn Beck Program, debuted in January 2002 and is now heard throughout the United States on over 350 stations and on XM Satellite Radio. The show is the third highest-rated radio talk show among adults aged 25 to 54. Similarly, Mr. Beck’s highly-rated television talk show, Glenn Beck, debuted in January 2009 and is one of the most successful new shows on the Fox News Network, being seen by millions of viewers daily.

14. Mr. Beck is also the author of three New York Times bestselling books, two of which have reached number one. Moreover, Mr. Beck performs in a live stage tour twice a year, attracting over 200,000 fans in nearly 40 different markets.
15. Mercury is Mr. Beck's fully integrated multi-media production company. Mercury produces or co-produces all Glenn Beck related properties including The Glenn Beck Program radio show, the Glenn Beck television show, Mr. Beck's New York Times bestselling books, his live stage-show business, the website GlennBeck.com, and consumer magazine Fusion.

B. Complainants' Rights in and to Their Trademarks (Rules, ¶ 3(b)(viii)):

16. Mr. Beck plainly has common law trademark rights in his name by virtue of his use of his name in conjunction with providing information services on his long-running, highly-rated, nationally syndicated radio show, his highly-rated Fox News Network show, as well as his use of his name in conjunction with his number one New York Times best selling books and successful live show tour, among other things. Complainants have been using Glenn Beck as a trademark and service mark since 2002.

17. Moreover, on January 12, 2007, Mercury filed an intent to use trademark application with the United States Patent and Trademark Office ("USPTO"), Serial No. 77/081,634, seeking to register the mark "GLENN BECK" for a number of goods and services, including but not limited to "on-line information services, namely, providing information, opinion and commentary in the field of current events and news reporting relating to political and social issues ...." On March 17, 2009, the USPTO granted a Notice of Allowance, and on August 10, 2009, Mercury filed a Statement of Use of the trademark in a number of classes and a Request to Divide the application between marks now in use and those remaining intent to use. A true and complete copy of the Status Report of the 77/081,634 Application as of September 17, 2009 from the USPTO website is attached hereto as Exhibit C.

18. The USPTO granted the Request to Divide and split those goods and services presently in use into application Serial No. 77/977898. On September 16, 2009, the USPTO examining attorney accepted the Statement of Use and the application for the mark “GLENN BECK” will register on the Principal Register. The registration has not yet issued. A true and complete copy of the Status Report of the 77/977,898 Application as of September 17, 2009 from the USPTO website is attached hereto as Exhibit D.

19. Mercury also maintains a website at www.GlennBeck.com (the “Glenn Beck Website”) which prominently bears the “Glenn Beck” name and mark. A true and correct copy of the main page of the Glenn Beck Website as of September 4, 2009 is attached hereto as Exhibit E.

C. The Respondent

20. By e-mail dated September 14, 2009, WIPO case manager Ty Gray advised that the Registrar eNom provided registrant information, and identified the previously anonymous registrant as Isaac Eiland-Hall, PanamaCityPC, 914 Brandeis Avenue, Panama City, Florida 32405. This information has since been reflected in the WHOIS record for the Domain Name.

21. Mr. Eiland-Hall is not affiliated with Complainants, nor is he authorized in any way to use the Glenn Beck name and mark.

D. Respondent’s Wrongful Use of the Glenn Beck name and Mark for its Domain Name

22. On September 1, 2009, without Mercury or Mr. Beck’s knowledge or permission, Respondent Isaac Eiland-Hall obtained and/or activated a registration of the domain name: GlennBeckRapedAndMurderedAYoungGirlIn1990.com with the Registrar, and, upon information and belief, shortly thereafter used the registration to publish a web site titled “GlennBeckRapedAndMurderedAYoungGirlIn1990.com” A true and complete printout of the main page of the website at www.GlennBeckRapedAndMurderedAYoungGirlIn1990.com (the “Website”), as it appeared on September 4, 2009, is attached hereto as Exhibit F.
23. The Domain Name is plainly libelous, patently false, not authorized by Mercury or Beck, and is likely to cause confusion for consumers.

24. The Website features links to other websites, including foxnewsboycott.com. The Fox News Boycott website offers for sale numerous books, stickers and clothing items, as well as solicits donations from its viewers. A true and correct copy of the “FNB Store” page from www.foxnewsboycott.com, as it appeared on September 4, 2009, is attached hereto as Exhibit G.

25. Complainants request the transfer of the Domain Name herein to avoid such unauthorized and disruptive activities in future.

26. In requesting the transfer of the domain name at issue, Complainants will prove the existence of each of the three elements set forth in Paragraph 4 of the Policy, which are:

a. The Domain Name GlennBeckRapedAndMurderedAYoungGirlIn1990.com fully incorporates and is confusingly similar to trademarks in which Complainants own rights; and

b. The Respondent has no rights or legitimate interest in respect to the GlennBeckRapedAndMurderedAYoungGirlIn1990.com Domain Name; and

c. The Respondent’s Domain Name was registered and was and is being used in bad faith.

VI. Legal Grounds

A. The Domain Name Is Confusing Similar to Trademarks in which the Complainants Have Rights (Policy, ¶ 4(a)(i), Rules, ¶ 3(b)(ix)(1))

27. Respondent’s domain name, GlennBeckRapedAndMurderedAYoungGirlIn1990.com is confusingly similar to Complainants’ “Glenn Beck” trademark as it incorporates the “Glenn Beck” name and mark entirely.

28. While the USPTO has not issued the actual registration in the “Glenn Beck” mark yet, the USPTO accepted Mercury’s Statement of Use and the registration will be issued in due course. Moreover as explained above, Mr. Beck owns and has used common law trademark and service mark rights in his name since 2002.

29. It is well settled that the term “trademark or service mark” as used in Paragraph 4(a)(i) of the Policy encompasses both registered marks and common law marks. CBS Broadcasting, Inc. f/k/a CBS, Inc. v. Nabil Z. Aghloul, WIPO Case No. D2004-0988 (finding protectable rights in common law trademark after approximately three years of use prior to the Registrant’s registration of identical domain name).

30. The fact that the domain name consists of “Glenn Beck” followed by other words does not preclude a finding of confusing similarity. As explained in the WIPO Overview of WIPO Panel Views on Selected UDRP Questions, Section 1.4 explains that the view of the majority of WIPO Panels is that “[a] domain name consisting of a trademark and a negative term is confusingly similar to the complainant’s mark.” (citing Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. v. Richard MacLeod d/b/a For Sale, WIPO Case No. D2000-0662 (“a domain name is ‘identical or confusingly similar’ to a trademark … when the domain name includes the trademark, or a confusingly similar approximation, regardless of the other terms in the domain name.”); see also Nicole Kidman v. John Zuccarini, d/b/a Cupcake Party, WIPO Case No. 2000-1415.

31. Accordingly, as the Domain Name incorporates the “Glenn Beck” name entirely, Complainants have satisfied the first element.
B. Respondent has no Rights or Legitimate Interests With Respect to the Domain Name (Policy, ¶ 4(a)(ii), Rules, ¶ 3(b)(ix)(2))

1. Respondent has no Right to Use the Domain Name.

32. Neither Mercury or Glenn Beck authorized Respondent Isaac Eiland-Hall to use the Glenn Beck name and mark in any manner, nor to register the domain name GlennBeckRapedAndMurderedAYoungGirlIn1990.com.

33. There is no evidence that the Respondent Isaac Eiland-Hall, who hid his name behind the WhoisGuard Privacy Service, is or has been commonly known as “Glenn Beck”, or has acquired any trademark or service mark rights in the “Glenn Beck” name or mark. Thus, the Respondent has no right to use the Domain Name.

2. Respondent has no Legitimate Interests with Respect to the Domain Name.

34. Respondent similarly has no legitimate interests with respect to the Domain Name. At best, Complainants expect Respondent to assert that it is using the Domain Name to indicate that the Website is a “protest” site.

35. While some URDP decisions have upheld the use of domain names on which websites critical to a company or organization are posted, “a line is often drawn where the protest site does not make is clear that it is in fact a protest site.” Hollenbeck Youth Center, Inc. v. Stephen Roland, WIPO Case No. D2004-0032. The Hollenbeck Panel explained that even if the nature of the respondent’s website is a non-commercial protest site, it is the Panel’s belief that protest disseminated through the powerful tools of the Internet is only legitimate if the protest is transparent. Transparency starts with choosing a domain name that reflects the protest as opposed to a domain name which implies an affiliation to the trademark holder. If the protest is reflected in the domain name (for instance by adding the component “sucks” or a similar element), Internet users will have a choice to follow or not to follow the link. Otherwise, they may be misled.

(emphasis added)
36. Here, there is nothing in Respondent’s Domain Name to indicate to the public that the Domain Name resolves to a complaint or protest site. The Domain Name merely states that Mr. Beck committed criminal acts. Thus, Respondent is attempting to mislead the public regarding the nature, origin and affiliation of the Website.

37. Indeed, as explained in the Nicole Kidman decision, supra, “The use of domain names that incorporate or are confusingly similar to a famous person’s name strongly suggests an intent to divert users seeking information on that celebrity.” (finding respondent had no legitimate right or interest in domain name that incorporated Nicole Kidman’s name).

38. Moreover, as explained below, the fact that the Domain Name is plainly defamatory undermines any argument that Respondent has any legitimate interest in using the Domain Name.

C. The Domain Name Was Registered and is Being Used in Bad Faith
   (Policy, ¶ 4(a)(iii), Rules, ¶ 3(b)(ix)(3))

1. Respondent Was Aware of Complainants’ Rights When it Registered the Domain Name.

39. Respondent registered the Domain Name on September 1, 2009, approximately seven years after Glenn Beck began his syndicated radio show, over two years after Mercury filed the trademark application for the mark “Glenn Beck”, and eight months after he began appearing on the Fox News Network. Given the millions of people who have seen or heard Mr. Beck on his radio and television shows, Respondent cannot legitimately assert that it was unaware of Mr. Beck.

2. The Domain Name isPlainly Defamatory and Establishes That It Was Registered in Bad Faith.

40. The most compelling evidence that Registrant registered the Domain Name at issue in bad faith is the fact that the Domain Name, in and of itself, is a defamatory comment stating that Mr. Beck engaged in horrific criminal activities that Mr. Beck never engaged in.
41. In doing so, Complainants assert that Respondent is using the Domain Name in order to damage Mr. Beck’s reputation, tarnish and dilute his trademark rights, and disrupt Complainants’ business activities. Such actions constitutes bad faith under the Paragraph 4(b) of the Policy. That paragraph makes clear that disruption of business activities can constitute bad faith. Furthermore, that paragraph makes clear that the examples of bad faith listed are not intended to be an exhaustive list, and bad faith may be found in the absence of the specific factors enumerated there. See CBS Broadcasting, Inc. f/k/a CBS, Inc. v. Nabil Z. Aghoul, supra.

42. For example, in the Hollenbeck Youth Center case, the Panel found that a domain name hosting a site protesting against the complainant and its director was registered in bad faith because:

   no indication whatsoever was given that the domain name resolves to a protest site rather than that of the Complainant. Internet users are very likely to assume that the domain name resolves to a website of the Complainant. The Respondent’s use is not transparent and is misleading. Moreover, the Respondent cannot have been in any doubt at the time of registering the domain name or subsequently, that there would be an adverse effect on [Complainant] as a result of Internet users (including sponsors and potential sponsors) who, wishing to find an [Complainant] present on the Internet, end up without warning at … a site highly critical of [Complainant] and its director.

43. Like the Hollenbeck Youth Center case, the Domain Name herein gives no indication that the user will be directed to a protest site. As the Domain Name incorporates the name “Glenn Beck” in its entirety, it is reasonable to assume that the average Internet user looking for information about Glenn Beck will find the Domain Name and believe or suspect that Mr. Beck committed the horrible acts stated. As such, the Domain Name constitutes classic tarnishment, where Respondent is associating the mark “GLENN BECK” with violence and unlawful sexual activities. See Kidman v. John Zuccarini, supra; American Express Co. v. Vibra Approved Labs. Corp., 10 U.S.P.Q.2d 2006, 1989 WL 39679 (S.D.N.Y. 1989).
44. Similarly, the United States District Court held in a comparable trademark case, Planned Parenthood Federation of America, Inc. v. Bucci, 1997 WL 133313 (S.D.N.Y. Mar. 24, 1997), aff'd, 152 F.3d 920 (2d Cir.), cert. denied, 525 U.S. 834 (1998), that a domain name registered by the defendant which included plaintiff's name and trademark constituted trademark dilution and violated plaintiff's trademark rights under the U.S. Lanham Act. There, the defendant, who was active in the anti-abortion movement, registered the domain www.plannedparenthood.com to use as a platform to divert people from plaintiff's website and promote defendant's contrary message. The court found that "the mere fact that defendant seeks to criticize plaintiff cannot automatically immunize a use that is otherwise prohibited by the Lanham Act." Id. at *5. Moreover, the court found that defendant's use was commercial because of its effect on the plaintiff's activities, explaining that defendant appropriated plaintiff's mark "to reach an audience of Internet users who want to reach plaintiff's services and viewpoint, intercepting them and misleading them in an attempt to offer his own political message." Id. at *6. Furthermore, the court rejected the defendant's contention that his website was merely a parody. Id. at *10 ("A parody 'depends on a lack of confusion to make its point,' and 'must convey two simultaneous - and contradictory - messages: that it is the original, but also that it is not the original and is instead a parody.'" (citation omitted)).

45. Based on the foregoing, it is clear that Respondent's Domain Name dilutes and tarnishes Complainants' trademarks because the Domain Name plainly states that Mr. Beck committed the horrific criminal acts of murder and rape. There is nothing parodic about the manner in which Respondent uses the Domain Name.

46. In sum, Complainants respectfully assert that the Panel should determine that Respondent registered and maintained the Domain Name in bad faith, according to Paragraph 4(a)(iii) of the Policy.
VII. Remedies Requested

47. In accordance with Paragraph 4(i) of the Policy, for the reasons described above, the Complainants request the Administrative Panel appointed to this administrative proceeding issue a decision that the contested Domain Name be transferred.

VIII. Administrative Panel

48. Complainants elect to have the dispute decided by a single-member Administrative Panel.

IX. Mutual Jurisdiction

49. In accordance with Paragraph 3(b)(xiii) of the Rules, Complainants agree to submit, only with respect to any challenge that may be made by the Respondent to a decision by the Administrative Panel to transfer the Domain Name that is the subject of the Amended Complaint, to the jurisdiction of the courts situated in the location of Respondent’s address, as shown for the registration of the Domain Name in the concerned registrar’s WHOIS database at the time of the submission of this Amended Complaint.

X. Other Legal Proceedings

50. Complainants are not aware of any other legal proceedings pending in connection with the Domain Name.

XI. Communications

51. A copy of this Amended Complaint and its exhibits, together with the cover sheet as prescribed by the Supplemental Rules, has been sent on today’s date, September 18, 2009: (i) via regular mail to the address as shown for Respondent on the Registrar’s WHOIS database at the time of the submission of this Amended Complaint, and (ii) to the Registrar via Federal Express priority to the address as shown on its website. A copy of this Amended Complaint, the cover sheet as prescribed by the Supplemental Rules, and such exhibits that are available in electronic form have also been sent via e-mail to: (i) the administrative contact for the Domain Name as shown on the Registrar’s WHOIS database at the time of the submission of this Complaint; and (ii) Respondent’s e-mail address, as disclosed by the Registrar.

52. This Amended Complaint is submitted to the Center in electronic form (except to the extent not available for annexes), and in four (4) sets together with the original.

XII. Payment

53. As required by the Rules and Supplemental Rules, payment in the amount of US$ 1,500.00 was previously submitted with the filing of the original Complaint.

XIII. Certification

54. Complainants agree that its claim and remedies concerning the registration of the Domain Name, the dispute, or the dispute’s resolution shall be solely against the domain name holder and waives all such claims and remedies against (i) the WIPO Arbitration and Mediation Center and Panelists, except in the case of deliberate wrongdoing, (ii) the Registrar, (iii) the Registrar’s administrator, (iv) the Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers, as well as their directors, officers, employees and agents.

55. Complainants certify that the information contained in this Amended Complaint is to the best of the Complainants’ knowledge complete and accurate, that this Amended Complaint is not being presented for any improper purpose, such as to harass, and that the assertions in this Amended Complaint are warranted under the Rules and under applicable law, as it now exists or as it may be extended by a good-faith and reasonable argument.

Uniform Domain Name Dispute Resolution Policy

(As Approved by ICANN on October 24, 1999 and implemented by eNom, Inc., on December 1, 1999)

1. Purpose. This Uniform Domain Name Dispute Resolution Policy (the "Policy") has been adopted by the Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers ("ICANN"), is incorporated by reference into your Registration Agreement, and sets forth the terms and conditions in connection with a dispute between you and any party other than us (the registrar) over the registration and use of a domain name registered by you. Proceedings under Paragraph 4 of this Policy will be conducted according to the Rules for Uniform Domain Name Dispute Resolution Policy (the "Rules of Procedure"), which are available at http://www.icann.org/udrp/udrp-rules-24oct99.htm, and the selected administrative-dispute-resolution service provider's supplemental rules.

2. Your Representations. By applying to register a domain name, or by asking us to maintain or renew a domain name registration, you hereby represent and warrant to us that (a) the statements that you made in your Registration Agreement are complete and accurate; (b) to your knowledge, the registration of the domain name will not infringe upon or otherwise violate the rights of any third party; (c) you are not registering the domain name for an unlawful purpose; and (d) you will not knowingly use the domain name in violation of any applicable laws or regulations. It is your responsibility to determine whether your domain name registration infringes or violates someone else's rights.

3. Cancellations, Transfers, and Changes. We will cancel, transfer or otherwise make changes to your domain name registrations under the following circumstances:
   a. subject to the provisions of Paragraph 8, our receipt of written or appropriate electronic instructions from you or your authorized agent to take such action;
   b. our receipt of an order from a court or arbitral tribunal, in each case of competent jurisdiction, requiring such action; and/or
   c. our receipt of a decision of an Administrative Panel requiring such action in any administrative proceeding to which you were a party and which was conducted under this Policy or a later version of this Policy adopted by ICANN. (See Paragraph 4(l) and (k) below.)

We may also cancel, transfer or otherwise make changes to your domain name registration in accordance with the terms of your Registration Agreement or other legal requirements.

This Paragraph sets forth the type of disputes for which you are required to submit to a mandatory administrative proceeding. These proceedings will be conducted before one of the administrative-dispute-resolution service providers listed at http://www.icann.org/udrp/approved-providers.htm (each, a "Provider").

a. Applicable Disputes. You are required to submit to a mandatory administrative proceeding in the event that a third party (a "complainant") asserts to the applicable Provider, in compliance with the Rules of Procedure, that

   (i) your domain name is identical or confusingly similar to a trademark or service mark in which the complainant has rights; and

www.enom.com/terms/drp.asp
(ii) you have no rights or legitimate interests in respect of the domain name; and

(iii) your domain name has been registered and is being used in bad faith.

In the administrative proceeding, the complainant must prove that each of these three elements are present.

b. Evidence of Registration and Use in Bad Faith. For the purposes of Paragraph 4(a)(iii), the following circumstances, in particular but without limitation, if found by the Panel to be present, shall be evidence of the registration and use of a domain name in bad faith:

(i) circumstances indicating that you have registered or you have acquired the domain name primarily for the purpose of selling, renting, or otherwise transferring the domain name registration to the complainant who is the owner of the trademark or service mark or to a competitor of that complainant, for valuable consideration in excess of your documented out-of-pocket costs directly related to the domain name; or

(ii) you have registered the domain name in order to prevent the owner of the trademark or service mark from reflecting the mark in a corresponding domain name, provided that you have engaged in a pattern of such conduct; or

(iii) you have registered the domain name primarily for the purpose of disrupting the business of a competitor; or

(iv) by using the domain name, you have intentionally attempted to attract, for commercial gain, Internet users to your web site or other on-line location, by creating a likelihood of confusion with the complainant’s mark as to the source, sponsorship, affiliation, or endorsement of your web site or location or of a product or service on your web site or location.

c. How to Demonstrate Your Rights to and Legitimate Interests in the Domain Name in Responding to a Complaint. When you receive a complaint, you should refer to Paragraph 5 of the Rules of Procedure in determining how your response should be prepared. Any of the following circumstances, in particular but without limitation, if found by the Panel to be proved based on its evaluation of all evidence presented, shall demonstrate your rights or legitimate interests to the domain name for purposes of Paragraph 4(a)(ii):

(i) before any notice to you of the dispute, your use of, or demonstrable preparations to use, the domain name or a name corresponding to the domain name in connection with a bona fide offering of goods or services; or

(ii) you (as an individual, business, or other organization) have been commonly known by the domain name, even if you have acquired no trademark or service mark rights; or

(iii) you are making a legitimate noncommercial or fair use of the domain name, without intent for commercial gain to misleadingly divert consumers or to tarnish the trademark or service mark at issue.

d. Selection of Provider. The complainant shall select the Provider from among those approved by ICANN by submitting the complaint to that Provider. The selected Provider will administer the proceeding, except in cases of consolidation as described in Paragraph 4(f).

e. Initiation of Proceeding and Process and Appointment of Administrative Panel. The Rules of Procedure state the process for initiating and conducting a proceeding and for appointing the panel that will decide the dispute (the "Administrative Panel").

f. Consolidation. In the event of multiple disputes between you and a complainant, either you or the complainant may petition to consolidate the disputes before a single Administrative Panel. This petition shall be made to the first Administrative Panel appointed to hear a pending dispute between the parties. This Administrative Panel may consolidate before it any or all such disputes in its sole discretion, provided that the disputes being consolidated are governed by this Policy or a later version of this Policy adopted by ICANN.

g. Fees. All fees charged by a Provider in connection with any dispute before an Administrative Panel pursuant to this Policy shall be paid by the complainant, except in cases where you elect to expand the Administrative Panel from one to three panelists as provided in Paragraph 5(b)(iv) of the Rules of Procedure, in which case all fees will be split evenly by you and the complainant.

h. Our Involvement in Administrative Proceedings. We do not, and will not, participate in the administration or conduct of any proceeding before an Administrative Panel. In addition, we will not be liable as a result of any decisions rendered by the Administrative Panel.

i. Remedies. The remedies available to a complainant pursuant to any proceeding before an Administrative Panel shall be limited to requiring the cancellation of your domain name or the transfer of your domain name registration to the complainant.

j. Notification and Publication. The Provider shall notify us of any decision made by an Administrative Panel with respect to a domain name you have registered with us. All decisions under this Policy will be published in full over the Internet, except when an Administrative Panel determines in an exceptional case to redact portions of its decision.

k. Availability of Court Proceedings. The mandatory administrative proceeding requirements set forth in Paragraph 4 shall not prevent either you or the complainant from submitting the dispute to a court of competent jurisdiction for independent resolution before such mandatory administrative proceeding is commenced or after such proceeding is concluded. If an Administrative Panel decides that your domain name registration should be canceled or transferred, we will wait ten (10) business days (as observed in the location of our principal office) after we are informed by the applicable Provider of the Administrative Panel's decision before implementing that decision. We will then implement the decision unless we have received from you during that ten (10) business day period official documentation (such as a copy of a complaint, file-stamped by the clerk of the court) that you have commenced a lawsuit against the complainant in a jurisdiction to which the complainant has submitted under Paragraph 3(b)(xii) of the Rules of Procedure. (In general, that jurisdiction is either the location of our principal office or of your address as shown in our Whois database. See Paragraphs 1 and 3(b)(xiii) of the Rules of Procedure for details.) If we receive such documentation within the ten (10) business day period, we will not implement the Administrative Panel's decision, and we will take no further action, until we receive (i) evidence satisfactory to us of a resolution between the parties; (ii) evidence satisfactory to us that your lawsuit has been dismissed or withdrawn; or (iii) a copy of an order from such court dismissing your lawsuit or ordering that you do not have the right to continue to use your domain name.

5. All Other Disputes and Litigation. All other disputes between you and any party other than us regarding your domain name registration that are not brought pursuant to the mandatory administrative proceeding provisions of Paragraph 4 shall be resolved between you and such other party through any court, arbitration or other proceeding that may be available.

6. Our Involvement in Disputes. We will not participate in any way in any dispute between you and any party other than us regarding the registration and use of your domain name. You shall not name us as a party or otherwise include us in any such proceeding. In the event that we are named as a party in any such proceeding, we reserve the right to raise any and all defenses deemed appropriate, and to take any other action necessary to defend ourselves.

7. Maintaining the Status Quo. We will not cancel, transfer, activate, deactivate, or otherwise change the status of any domain name registration under this Policy except as provided in Paragraph 3 above.

8. Transfers During a Dispute.

a. Transfers of a Domain Name to a New Holder. You may not transfer your domain name registration to another holder (i) during a pending administrative proceeding brought pursuant to Paragraph 4 or for a period of fifteen (15) business days (as observed in the location of our principal place of business) after such proceeding is concluded; or (ii) during a pending court proceeding or arbitration commenced regarding your domain name unless the party to whom the domain name registration is being transferred agrees, in writing, to be bound by the decision of the court or arbitrator. We reserve the right to cancel any transfer of a domain name registration to another holder that is made in violation of this subparagraph.

b. Changing Registrars. You may not transfer your domain name registration to another registrar during a pending administrative proceeding brought pursuant to Paragraph 4 or for a period of fifteen (15) business days (as observed in the location of our principal place of business) after such proceeding is concluded. You may transfer administration of your domain name registration to another registrar during a pending court action or arbitration, provided that the domain name you have registered with us shall continue to be subject to the proceedings commenced against you in accordance with the terms of this Policy. In the event that you transfer a domain name registration to us during the pendency of a court action or arbitration, such dispute shall remain subject to the domain name dispute policy of the registrar from which the domain name registration was transferred.

We reserve the right to modify this Policy at any time with the permission of ICANN. We will post our revised Policy at www.enom.com/drp.asp at least thirty (30) calendar days before it becomes effective. Unless this Policy has already been invoked by the submission of a complaint to a Provider, in which event the version of the Policy in effect at the time it was invoked will apply to you until the dispute is over, all such changes will be binding upon you with respect to any domain name registration dispute, whether the dispute arose before, on or after the effective date of our change. In the event that you object to a change in this Policy, your sole remedy is to cancel your domain name registration with us, provided that you will not be entitled to a refund of any fees you paid to us. The revised Policy will apply to you until you cancel your domain name registration.
